arch_weekly note

Our Professional Advisory Board meeting on Friday was a great success. Our symposium on alternative career paths was inspiring and highlighted the inherent value of an architectural degree. A special thanks to our own graduates, Tim Hossler and Erin Gehle for participating. You are amazing. Thanks to the board as well for yet another fun "Ask an Architect" panel and our Architectural Student Advisory Board for throwing awesome questions at the panel.

Our fifth-year students, Shannon Hush, Vy Nguyen, Nathan Long, and Ryan Hergott knocked one out of the park by taking second and the audience appreciation award for their film "The Sketch" at the KSU 48-hour film competition. Nicely done.

Don't forget to stop by and thank Rebecca Stark for her incredible student support as we celebrate her upcoming retirement. See below.

Have a great week.
