Last year, Dave Richter O'Connell, assistant professor in the IAPD department, designed faucets for the company Insinkerator. His designs were recently featured at the Kitchen and Bath Show.

Award | Director Member of Award Winning Team

M . Arthur Gensler Jr. & Associates has been selected to receive Texas Instruments' highest level of supplier recognition, the 2016 Texas Instruments Supplier Excellence Award. Amie Keener, interim IAPD program director and associate at Gensler, was among those recognized for their outstanding quality of work, innovation, execution and performance. Gensler received the award because of its commitment to the highest level of ethical behavior, as well as exceptional performance in the areas of cost, environmental and social responsibility, technology, responsiveness and assurance of supply and quality. The award is typically given to suppliers, including computer chips and electronic equipment suppliers, making this a significant achievement for Gensler.

Tiny House | Manhattan's Tiny House on Display

Students collaborated with ReStore to create a tiny house. The finished product was celebrated with an open house on April 22 in Manhattan.

SCHOLARSHIP | APDesign Scholarship Award Letters

Scholarship award letters for 2017-2018 will be sent out to APDesign students beginning in mid-May. The email will originate from Becky O'Donnell (bodonnell@ksu.edu) and be sent out to students via their official ksu.edu email accounts with a subject line of "APDesign Scholarship Award."

Please periodically check your ksu.edu account even after you have left campus in May and pay close attention to the deadlines set out in the award letters.
