Weigel Library Updates

Weigel Library featured in K-State Libraries' magazine!

Shortly after Weigel Library moved from 3rd floor Seaton to 0081 Regnier Hall this past October, your library was in front of a camera. Remember the call for "photo shoot" participants?

K-State Libraries brought in the University photographer to capture the look and atmosphere of the new Weigel.

The result of that visit is a feature article in the Winter Issue of the K-State Libraries Magazine, which is now available. (<https://www.lib.k-state.edu/magazine>). We'll let you know when print issues are available in Weigel.

You'll recognize the Weigel "patrons". Thanks to them for participating and making Weigel look really good!

A reception for student and professional members of ASLA will follow in The Ekdahl, 5:30 pm.

The Exhibit runs in the Cassias Gallery in Regnier Hall through February 16, 2018.

The New American Garden is part of The Cultural Landscape Foundation (TCLF) Landslide program that brings national attention to threatened and at-risk landscapes. Each year TCLF produces a thematic Landslide report – the work of Oehme, van Sweden was the theme in 2015.

The New American Garden: The Landscape Architecture of Oehme, van Sweden exhibition includes 52 contemporary and newly commissioned photographs of important residential, civic, and commercial projects. Its debut in 2015 was timed to the 25th anniversary of the influential 1990 book Bold Romantic Gardens, which the two business partners wrote with Susan Rademacher, former executive director of the Louisville Olmsted Parks Conservancy, Inc., and currently the parks curator at the Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy.
